Farmer's Reasons for Supporting Americans

Salt Lake county is but a small one, and in fact a continuous city clear out to Sandy. I am beginning to believe we farmers are being used somewhat by county politicians to get fat jobs in the county. I do not hear any complaints of the party which is controlling Salt Lake City from the familles and people I do business with in the city. All seems to be running along nicely and the people seem to delight in telling me of the improvements that are going on. One old lady mentioned the fact that a few years ago she could not sell her two lots for any price. Now she can realize enough

Editor Tribune—I have lived in Salt Lake county forty-four years and I know its history quite well, and I am thoroughly well posted on the advancements and drawbacks we have experienced in arriving at our present state of thrift and enhanced property values.

I have the good fortune to own a small ferm in this county could be such that the fact of not being able to sell my products for enough to pay my running expenses. But the last five years I have been making head way. I load my wagon and set he county should be such and I know but little about other churches and possibly not enough about my own.

I read the Somi-Weekly Descret News as from the clay and unload my wagon and get back home for dinner about 2 clock, and as I reach the city if ind paved streets and see no city as well as big business buildings, and each trip I raise on a farm that has doubled in value in the last five years.

Expresses Confidence That He Will Be Victor in Battle With Bryan.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25 .- William H. Taft eached New York at 6:15 o'clock tonight from Gary, Ind., where he closed the campaign in that state last night. The eighteen-hour journey afforded the candidate complete rest from talking. He said he felt in first-class physical condition, although somewhat hoarse.

Henry W. Taft met his brother at the station and took him to his residence, where he will spend the night.

The first lap of Mr. Taft's eastern campaign will begin tomerrow with a run to New Haven. Conn., which will begin at 10:30 o'clock. The Taft special will again be in New York at 4:30 o'clock, and in the evening Mr. Taft will address a meeting in Brooklyn. Mr. Taft is planning to take a brief rest after the election. 'I have campaigned in twenty-one states.' said Mr. Taft tonight. 'I expect to carry all of them with the exception or those south of the Mason and Dixon line. The situation looks better than at any previous time, and I shall enter the last lap of the campaign with a great deal of interest and enthusiasm.' Mr. Taft talked freely during the evening to callers, in all cases express-
